1. Have you had experience as a volunteer? If yes, when and where did you volunteer? Did you fulfill your commitment? (We may contact one of these agencies for a reference. (35 words)

2. Why have you chosen to volunteer at Citizens' Counselling Centre (CCC) at this time? (35 words)

3. What do you hope to gain from volunteering at the CCC? (35 words)

The training program involves several levels of commitment which include the following expectations:

While in the training –

- a) Attend training sessions for three hours every week (evening) for ten months.
- b) Attend two mandatory weekends (one residential) as scheduled.
- c) Attend an additional 35-40 hours of training and supervision outside of regular group time.

After completing the training –

- d) Complete 250 sessions (a minimum of 2 clients each week plus ½ hour monthly supervision) of counselling as a volunteer. This is a 2-3 hour commitment every week for 2 - 3 years in addition to the initial 10 month training.
- e) Complete paperwork, collect fees and schedule appointments with clients. Please comment on your ability to hand in monthly reports and handle your own scheduling. (30 words)

If you are accepted, what does your commitment to Citizens' mean to you? (90 words)

4. What in your life might prevent you from:

- a) completing the training program?
- b) completing your 250-session volunteer commitment?
- c) and, if you were unable to honour your counselling commitment at Citizens, such as in the event of a move or major unsolvable crisis, how would you satisfy your commitment to us?

Please note that the training costs Citizens' $3,000 for each participant. (200 words)

5. Have you attended individual counselling? When? For how long? For what issues? How was it helpful/not helpful? (75 words)

6. Have you attended couples counselling? When? For how long? For what issues? How was it helpful/not helpful? (75 words)

7. What personal growth groups have you participated in as a client (not as a facilitator) and how have they affected your life? (120 words)

8. Part of this program is personal growth and part is skill development. What are the most current personal issues in your life right now? Which might you like to learn more about in the training? Do you have any concerns about your ability to participate in the personal growth part of the program, i.e. recent trauma or illness? (130 words)

9. What do you consider to be the strengths you would bring to your work as a volunteer counsellor (i.e. specialized knowledge or lived experience)? (160 words)

10. What do you consider to be the challenges you may have as a counsellor where others share openly with you? (90 words)

11. When you experience personal stress, overwhelm or challenges, how do you support yourself?
What resources do you draw upon? (90 words)

12. Part of this training involves you learning more about yourself and coming forward in the group with some of your process. What challenges might you have being part of an experiential training where you share openly? (90 words)

13. Do you have charges pending or have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence? YES NO

If so, when, and for what reason? If you are accepted into the training program you will be required to complete a Criminal Record Check - Vulnerable Sector. A letter can be provided at that time exempting you from being charged a fee for this. The Criminal Record Check must be completed prior to beginning training. (60 words)

14. Is there anything else that would be helpful for us to know about you or anything you would like us to know (to help us provide a supportive learning and practicing environment for you)? (140 words)

PLEASE NOTE: There is a onetime charge of $200.00 which is applied to the costs of the off-site residential weekend training (food and accommodation costs).
